Student/Parent Resource Pick-up & Locker Cleanout Protocols

In light of recent developments around COVID-19, and the announcements that classes are cancelled in the province of Alberta, we have made arrangements for students and/or parents/guardians to visit the school, pick-up essential learning resources, and clean out lockers.

- Reminders ...
- + Watch for symptoms – sore throat, cough or fever
 - + If experiencing symptoms, stay home – don't visit the school
 - + Avoid close contact with others
 - + Call 811 if symptoms develop
 - + Learn more: alberta.ca/COVID19

1. See school visit schedule.
 - a. Based on your grade and last name, please arrive at the start of the scheduled time to pick-up essential learning resources and clean out your locker
2. Mandatory sanitization of hands upon entry of the school.
3. If you do not know your locker number and/or lock combination, see one of our staff at the main entrance for assistance.
4. Classrooms will be closed and subject teacher(s) will not be available at this time.
5. Go directly to your hallway and physical education locker.
6. Please take all your personal items and school resources (i.e textbooks, novels, etc.) home.
 - a. You will need a bag/tote to transport your items
 - b. Bags/Totes will not be provided by the school
7. Clean out your lockers and put any garbage in the waste containers in the hallway.
8. Re-lock your locker.
9. When you have secured your valuables, leave the school immediately through the main entrance of the school only.
 - a. Please do not stay to socialize.
10. Stay tuned for school updates. We will send out School Messenger information, post updates on our school website, and share this information on our school twitter and instagram accounts as it becomes available.
