

Grades 10-12 Option Block Course Offerings		Description	Prerequisite
LDC3155	Abnormal Psychology 35-3	An overview of abnormal behaviour and mental conditions that impact individuals in Canadian society. Learn about views of abnormality, causal factors, and types of disorders, as well as assessment, prevention and treatments.	Gen or Pers Psychology
SSN1154	Aboriginal Studies 10	The course teaches students the perspectives and worldviews of Aboriginal peoples.	None
SSN2154	Aboriginal Studies 20	Expand on your knowledge from Aboriginal studies 10 regarding the perspectives and worldviews of Aboriginal peoples.	Aboriginal Studies 10
FNA1424	Beginner Band	A chance for students to revisit an instrument or to learn a new one.	None
CTSCPS3	Coding – Computing Sciences	Students will work on modules that will cover computer coding and computer programming.	None
CTSCPA3	Computer Applications	Students will choose modules that will cover several topics including keyboarding, word processing, spreadsheets and/or programming	None
CTSCT3	Com Tech 3 credit	Students will work on modules that will give them an opportunity to have fun exploring the realm of visual communication and graphic arts.	None
LDC0010	Content Literacy 15 (Bridge course to English 10) *Mandatory if a student failed ELA (English) 9 Recommended for students who had below 60% in ELA 9 or students wanting to improve their writing and reading skills	A bridge course to English 10. This course is designed to help students who struggle with core subject content because of difficulties attaining and demonstrating understandings found in subject area instructional materials. This course will help to expand comprehension strategies and empower students to be more successful readers and writers. This course teaches strategies that are transferable across all core subject areas.	None

LDC0020	Content Literacy 25 *Recommended for students who had below 60% in English 10 or students who want to improve their writing and reading skills	This course is designed to help students who struggle with core subject content because of difficulties attaining and demonstrating understandings found in subject area instructional materials. This course will help to expand comprehension strategies and empower students to be more successful readers and writers. This course teaches strategies that are transferable across all core subject areas.	English 10
CTSCE3	Cosmetology	Modules that cover hairdressing and esthetics skills for personal and professional uses.	None
CTSELT3	Electrician Package - Introductory	Electro technology modules that will introduce students to the principles and concepts of electrical.	None
ESL1120	English as a Second Language - All Year - 5 Credit Mandatory for ELL Students	English as a Second Language instruction. Expanding students' knowledge of written and spoken English language.	None
SSN3171	Experimental Psychology 30	Students will gain an understanding of psychological research and experimentation and an introduction to statistical analysis.	None
CTSFS3	Fashion Studies	Modules that introduce students to sewing, quilting, textiles, accessories, fashion illustrations and more.	None
LDC1384	Film Appreciation 15-3	This course introduces students to film as an art form including film criticism and analysis with different genres of film being studied.	None
LDC2384	Film Appreciation 25-3	Expand on your knowledge from Film Appreciation 15 with a focus on societal influences on film as well as those reinforced by film. Students will practice and develop skills in analysis and criticism with awareness and discrimination.	Film Appreciation 15
CTSFMT3	Financial Management	Students will work on accounting modules that will introduce them to business accounting practices.	None

CTSFD3	Foods - Introductory	An introduction to food basics. Students will work in the foods lab and in the industrial commercial kitchen.	None
LDC2569	Forensic Studies 25	Discover how evidence from a crime scene is gathered and analyzed. Explore principles behind fingerprinting, breathalyzers, polygraphs, and DNA analysis.	Science 10
LDC3569	Forensic Studies 35	Take your knowledge from Forensic Studies 25 and investigate further as you learn about forensic anthropology, entomology, toxicology, ballistics, criminal profiling, arson investigations and police dogs.	Forensic Studies 25
FSL1099	French as a Second Language 10 – All Year – 5 Credit	Expanding students' knowledge of the written and spoken French language.	None
SSN2172	General Psychology 20	A general overview of psychology, including its history and the psychological principles of learning and thinking.	None
LDC1431	Jazz Band	A chance for students already taking a band course within our school to explore jazz band.	Must be enrolled in Band
LDC1509	Leadership, Character & Social Responsibility	This course is designed to provide students with opportunities to explore leadership, develop leadership skills and abilities, and to grow and develop as individuals while making a difference in their school and community.	None
CTSLGS3	Legal Studies	Modules that introduce students to the world of law, including private law, public law, small business law, criminal law and more.	None
LDC1515	Math 15 (Competencies in Math – Bridge course to Math 10C *Mandatory if a student failed Math 9	A bridge course to Math 10C. This course is designed to build on basic math skills and cover important and necessary components of the math curriculum to help ensure students can be successful in Math 10C.	None
PED1445	Modified PE 10 - *Grade 11 & 12 Students only who have failed PE 10 in the past	This course is a modified physical education grade 10 program. It is provided to grade 11 and 12 students who were unable to find	None success in regular grade 10 physical education programming.

LDC2403	Myth-Busting Science 25	An introduction to the nature of both mythological and scientific thinking, and a critical look at some interesting research and ideas Students will explore the history of science as it challenges cultural and contemporary myths.	Science 10
SSN2171	Personal Psychology 20	Get a glimpse into the human brain.An introduction to the science of the brain including various branches of psychology, personality development and perception.	None
LDC0023	Popular Culture 25-5	The intent of this course is to foster an appreciation of music, film as a form of literature and other types of media. Students will be exposed to music, films, and media that may be outside of their experience as it is important for them to recognize that the media they consume regularly was influenced in some way by the media that came before it.	Eng 10 coreq or prereq
LDC0033	Popular Culture 35-5	Take your knowledge from Popular Culture 25 and expand on it. Look further into the influence of music, films, and the media.	Pop Culture 25
CTSROB3	Robotics Package	Students will work on modules that will cover computer programming and basic robotics.	None
CTSREC3	Sports & Recreation Package	Modules that cover sports & nutrition, nutrition & wellness and health services foundations. This course teaches students about staying fit and healthy	None
SSN3161	World Religions 30	Students will learn about major religions around the world. Their meaning and development and their basic beliefs and practices.	None
CTSYBK3	Yearbook	The yearbook course involves using an online program to create the CCHS student yearbook. Students will develop skills in photography, journalism and layout design.	None